Drug Policy Bio

- Currently serves as the elected District Attorney for Lincoln County, Oregon. Also serves as legal advisor for the Oregon Narcotics Enforcement Association.
- Author of many of Oregon’s drug laws, including those relating to meth control. Helped author federal laws to control international diversion of meth chemicals.

- Served as Chair of Oregon’s Meth Task Force, and currently serves on the Advisory Board of the National Methamphetamine & Pharmaceuticals Initiative (NMPI).

- Co-founder and President of the Oregon Alliance for Drug Endangered Children.

- Created numerous local and state initiatives that provide science-based solutions to problems caused by substance abuse and mental illness, such as HOPE and other diversionary court programs.

- Authored a law review article entitled Meth Epidemic Solutions, 82 North Dakota Law Review 1195, and a recent Op Ed in the New York Times.

- Provided over 500 presentations regarding drug policy, and has appeared on numerous programs, including ABC World News, Good Morning America, National Public Radio, and PBS NewsHour and FRONTLINE.

- Recipient of the 2006 Oregon Governor’s Gold Award for outstanding public service, and the 2008 NMPI national “Impact” award.

- Married, and has four adult children and one grandchild – so Rob is aging a bit faster than normal.
