PhotoVoice is a self-represented documentation dedicated to portray the true faces and stories behind youth who are, or have experienced homelessness. “Youth in Transition” is meant as a tool to break down stereotypes and encounter the reality of individual experience.

Come enjoy one of the exhibit openings, or view the photographs on your own time! Discover the stories of “Youth in Transition” from their perspective, through their newfound art of photography.

Openings will include an unveiling of the artwork, light refreshments, discussion about PhotoVoice, and the photographers’ opportunity to share their work with you!
