

Canada Thistle

Colony-forming aggressive perennial. Stems are 3.5 to 4.5 ft. tall, ridged and branched with spiny leaves having serrated and ruffled edges. Flowers are usually purple, but may be white or pink occurring during July and August. Produces seed, but spreads mainly by a creeping, extensive root system.