

SCOTCH BROOM

Perennial shrub, as much as 9' tall.

Flowers usually single, bright yellow, red or tinged with purple in April or May.

Branches are very skeleton-like, green and strongly 5 angled.

Alternate leaves with scaly stems that lose their leaves in winter until after bloom.