

GRANTS TO HELP EMPLOYERS AND SURVIVORS OF WILDFIRE RECOVERY

Northwest Oregon Works (NOW) has received federal grant funds to access a crew of temporary workers related to the recent Echo Mountain fire disaster in Lincoln County. Training scholarships or On-the-Job Training supports are also available for unemployed workers.

HUMANITARIAN WORK

- Food, clothing or related distribution
- Navigator or Peer-Support
- Other humanitarian aid

CLEAN-UP WORK

- Debris removal
- Demolition of Structures

RECOVERY/REBUILD WORK

- Repair and reconstruction of structures, facilities or lands related to the disaster
- Recovery and rebuilding work will focus on public land

JOB SEEKERS

- Currently not employed with priority to those who have been laid off as a consequence of the disaster
- Training funds are also available for non-disaster related work
- Supportive services to enable participation in disaster relief employment and training services

For more information contact:
Angeline Chan-Pepper
888-457-1178 ext 602
Angeline.Chan@equusworks.com

